

Barrow and Wolds Group January Diary

Reflection of the season

During the season of Epiphany we remember the ways in which the child Jesus was revealed as the Son of God. Firstly with Simon and Anna in the Temple proclaiming him the long awaited Messiah, then the visit of the Magi, who recognised him as a king, followed by Jesus Baptism' when the voice of God declares "you are my son". The season finishes with the Presentation of Christ in the Temple also known as Candlemas, when traditionally all the church candles for the year were donated by the congregation and blessed for use in church.

Congratulations to David Spencer, one of our Associate Ministers who has been appointed as the Anglican Chaplain for HMP Fosse Way. David started his new role in December, just in time for Christmas. We wish him well in this exciting new chapter of his ministry. David will continue to minister in the Barrow and Wolds Group from time to time too.
