

Barrow and Wolds Group February Diary

Reflection of the season

February often feels like a quiet in-between month-winter still lingering, spring not yet in sight. Yet it is in this waiting that God continues His faithful work. The shorter days remind us that light is precious, and even the smallest glimmer can guide us forward. As we move through this month, and begin to look toward the season of Lent, February becomes a bridge-linking thanksgiving with preparation, reflection and renewal. May we use these days to give thanks for where we have been, seek God's guidance for where we are now, and open our hearts to where he is leading us next.
